

Career Transition Seminars

Employees (and contractors) are invited to attend Career Transition Seminars run by Dept. Human Services, Commonwealth Dept. of Employment, NSW Dept. of Industry and the Small Business Advisory Service which will provide information on:

- Free help with job seeking, job search tips, labour market trends and other assistance.
- Training options available to retrenched workers. These include full qualification funding that requires a fee to be paid as well as fee free part qualifications (such as truck licences, forklift training, MYOB). You'll be asked to complete an expression of interest for government funded training you might like.
- Termination payments and tax free and taxable portions, superannuation and applicable waiting periods for Income Support payments as well as the different Income Support payments available.
- Advice on how to start up your own small business.
